2007 Summit Registration

Registration for the 2007 Family Nature Summit at Blue Ridge Assembly in August is under way and filling quickly. We are well over 200 participants. Please take advantage of the extension of discounted rates by registering before January 15, 2007. You can obtain a registration form on our website, www.familysummits.org. We are happy to email, mail or fax you a copy of the registration form if that is easier for you. Simply reply to this message with the method you would like to receive a registration form and we will send it. Please be sure to include your full contact details. If you would prefer to call you can contact the Family Summit at (949) 743-2567.

Accommodations

Beginning January 15, 2007, Family Summits members who have registered for the 2007 Summit may make room reservations online directly with the Blue Ridge Assembly. From the home page www.blueridgeassembly.org, click on "Events" and follow the prompts. You can obtain help with your reservation by calling 828-669-8422. All housing deposits and payments will be made directly to the Blue Ridge Assembly and are subject their cancellation policies.

Faculty Application

Annie Tiberio Cameron, Steve Houser and Ron Wahl have recruited some great veteran faculty members for this summer. We have the makings of a great faculty, with nearly a full complement of Junior Naturalist Staff, but we have room for a few more topics geared to adults, such as local Blue Ridge cultural or history topics, and perhaps some classes on specific natural history or ecology of the region. We're seeking qualified faculty members for paid teaching positions in the Youth and Adult Programs. (Volunteer positions are to be addressed and filled later.) If you would like to receive a faculty application, or know of someone who would, please send an email requesting an application package to: recruiting@familysummits.org
