

Granlibakken Conference Center & Lodge

- In This Issue
- 2010 Numbers
 - March 31 Deadlines
 - Facebook Challenge
 - New 2010 Flyer
 - New Homepage
 - Regional Events
 - Volunteers
 - Recruitment Stories
 - Reno Transportation

New 2010 Flyer: Forward to a Friend & Get Printed Copies

Great news! The 2010 Flyer is now available and you saw a preview in the email sent February 19. We hope you forwarded it to all your friends and family.

You can request print copies of the flyer. Are you attending community events or professional conferences? Just request flyers at info@familysummits.org.

If you mis-placed your email, you can download the flyer from the website and make your own email.

Spread the word! You never know who amongst your contacts will just LOVE the Summit.

2010 Registration To Date

- Adults - 148
- Young Adults - 22
- Teens - 27
- Junior Naturalists (ages 5-12) - 20
- Early Discovery (ages 3-4) - 5
- Child Care - 2
- TOTAL = 224

Reminders: March 31 Deadlines

The facility for the 2010 Summit, Granlibakken Conference Center and Lodge, is holding a block of the best rooms for Summiteers. But they release any unreserved rooms to non-Summit participants on March 31. So if you want the best selection for room and board at Summit, book your room by March 31. (Special Summit pricing will still be available after that date.)

Also, if you are encouraging friends and family to attend - remember that you can get a $50 credit from your tuition if you both register by March 31. Learn more about the Bring a Friend, Earn a Reward program.

New Website Homepage for Summits

The Family Nature Summit homepage recently had a makeover.

We were lucky to receive volunteer web marketing services from Paul Blank who applied his background in travel marketing. He also optimized the homepage for search engines.

Check out the new homepage! And feel free to send feedback to info@familysummits.org.

Summiteers Host Regional Events to Engage New People

What better way to spread the word about Summit than outdoors in nature?

On Saturday April 24, two groups are organizing events - one in Pennsylvania and one in California. We hope you can join regional events, or maybe you'll like to host your own.

Learn about the Summit regional events today!

Facebook Challenge

Learn how you can promote Summit on your Facebook profile.

Closing Quote:

But while the earth has slumbered, all the air has been alive with feathery flakes descending.

- Henry David Thoreau

Call for 2010 Volunteers

Summit is four months away and now is the time to get volunteers excited about all the volunteer opportunities in Tahoe.

As a volunteer you will receive benefits including the following:

- A special volunteer white scarf similar to the orange scarf worn by faculty
- An invitation to you and a guest to attend the pre-Summit Faculty/Staff/Volunteer brunch on Opening Day, July 5, 2010

We'll need help with:

- Green Lifestyles Evening
- Summit store
- Childcare assistance
- Hike assistance
- "Ambassadors" to help Yellow Scarves and others in various ways

If you are interested in volunteering, please email volunteer@familysummits.org.

How Many People Have You Brought to Summit?

Volunteer board member Rosanne Mistretta has brought 28 people to Summit over the years. We're looking for someone who can boast a bigger number. Do you know anyone? Read Rosanne's amazing recruiting story and get inspired to start your own trend.

Transportation from Reno to Granlibakken

Logistics Director Carl Brown researched how to get from Reno to Granlibakken, the 2010 Summit location. Get the details about transportation. And if you register in a group, the price per seat goes WAY down - so you might keep that in mind!