

Volume 4, Issue 1

September 2009

In This Issue

2009 Surveys
Register for 2010
Teacher Thanks
Tweeting
990 Form Available

Granlibakken, Here We Come!

The 2010 location for the Family Nature Summit has been announced:

Granlibakken Conference Center and Lodge on July 5-11, 2010

We hope you can come!

Registration is now open. Register by September 30 and you can save $25 per person.

To get a total discount of $50 per person, register before September 30 and pay in full by December 31, 2009.

Thanks from Our Teacher Scholarship Recipients

Shondra Hayward and P. Oliver were our two teacher scholarship recipients at the 2009 Summit.

Read Shondra's heartfelt thank you to all the Summiteers who donated to the scholarship fund to make her experience possible.

Let's Give Them Something to Tweet About

Summiteers want to promote Family Nature Summits on Twitter because it is popular way to connect these days.

Get tips on how to tweet about Summits, including how to join your tweets with other Summiteers on Twitter.

Summit's IRS Documentation Available

Family Nature Summits is a registered non-profit and we produce a report for the IRS called the 990 form. The latest version has just been posted on the website.

Learn about the Summit's charitable status today.

Closing Quote:

"The worst day of the year is the day we have to leave Family Summit." -- Jack Kelley, Summiteer

What Did You Think of the 2009 Summit?

We appreciate hearing from you! Please fill out a survey or two. (Surveys are online and take less than 10 minutes.)

- Participant Survey
- Adult class/hike/activity Survey
- Parental Survey of Youth Program
- Young Adult Survey